

Is Your Network Operations Trapped In Time?

Common NetOps Time Traps and How to Get to a Future-Proofed State

Tuesday, February 28, 2023

Before we begin.. some housekeeping for a good experience

All participants will be muted during this webinar.

Please ask questions! We will be responding to questions throughout the session via Q&A and will have time at the end to answer a few questions live.

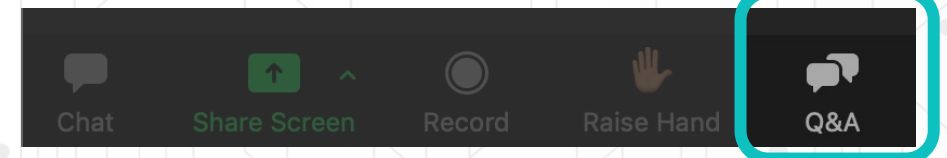

Look for the recording via email after the webinar

If you experience technical difficulties, please try exiting and re-joining the webinar.

To ask questions at any time, use the Q&A feature:

Today's Speakers

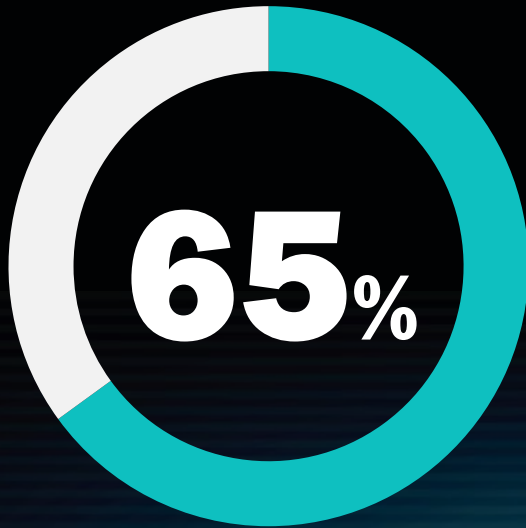

Mohamed Al-Shebeni
CEO at Almanfad Consulting

Brent Hunter
Sales Engineer,
Resolve Systems

Network Operations - Trapped in Time?

of enterprise networking activities are performed manually

- Infrastructure automation efforts often start with server automation
- The level of network automation in the enterprise lags server automation

Speaker Q&A

What keeps you stuck ?

41% of organizations
automate less than 10% of network

activities

Speaker
Q&A

Scripting is Automation?

Homegrown, DIY scripts are commonly used in Network Operations

Speaker Q&A

IT Process Automation

Automate and orchestrate your existing processes

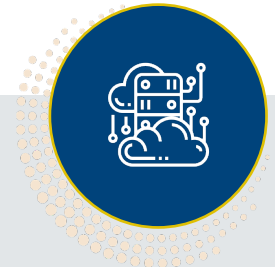

IT Operations Management

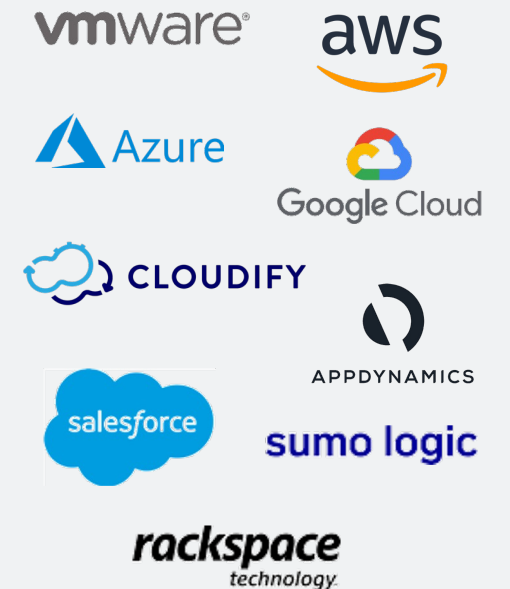

IT Service Management

Network Operations Management

Cloud Operations

Speaker Q&A

Welcome to the era of Network Automation

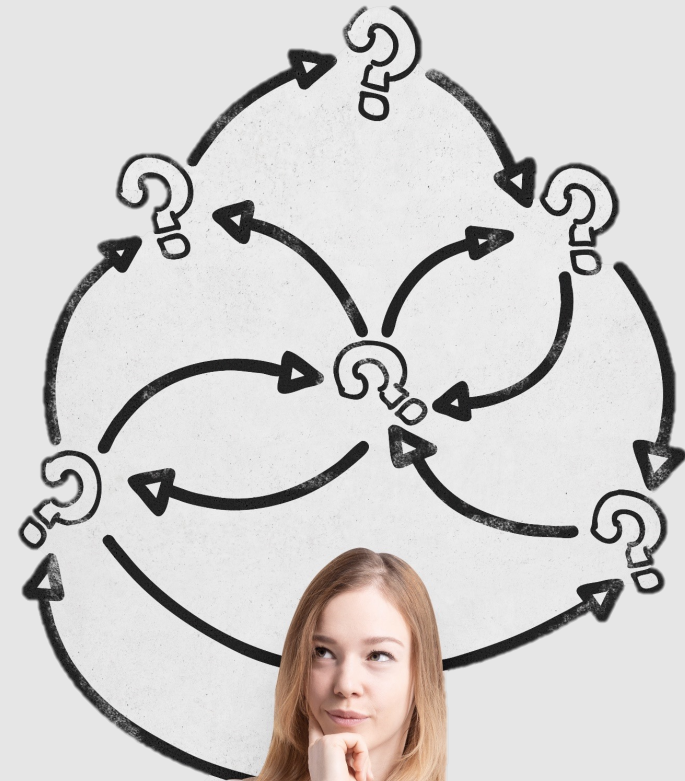

Where do you begin?

Prioritize automation as a strategy

Pick the right platform

Don't ignore security

Collaborate across all IT teams

Q&A

RESOLVE™

A stylized graphic of a circuit board or network connection, featuring teal and white lines and squares, positioned to the right of the word RESOLVE.